When you contact us

You may be asked to provide personal data to Odyssey in order for us to respond to your questions or requests. This includes information in your message which may contain personal data. We register the personal data you provide in the contact form such as your first/last name, email address, company name, phone number, and country or region based on your consent for the purpose of processing your inquiry as a visitor of our website. Without any of this information, Odyssey would not be able to respond to your request.

When you provide Personal Data on our website

You may be asked to provide personal data to Odyssey in order to use our website and the functions we make available for visitors, and for us to respond to your questions or requests. This includes information in your message which may contain personal data. We register the personal data you provide, e.g. in the contact form, such as your first/last name, email address, company name, phone number, and country or region based on your consent as well as our legitimate interest for the purpose of processing your inquiry as a visitor of our website. Without this information, Odyssey would not be able to respond to your request. We record your company name and country in order to be able to assign your matter more effectively.

How we use your Personal Data

We use personal data to respond to your requests, or contact you via mail, e-mail, or phone to fulfill your request or provide service communications. We will also use personal data to help us develop and improve our website, services, content, advertising, including through auditing and data analysis, statistics, surveys, research purposes, and other lawful processing for our reasonable business purposes. The personal data we request in our contact forms are minimized to the relevant data required for its purpose, but we may ask for your consent to use your data for other purposes such as marketing activities. If you agree to transact business with us, Odyssey will use your personal data to contact you for marketing purposes.

Consent

If you do not want to be on our mailing list for one or more marketing activities, you can opt out at any time by updating your preferences or withdraw your consent by clicking on the appropriate link in the footer of our marketing emails.

Information required for other Legitimate Purpose

Odyssey may be required by law, legal process, litigation, and/or requests from public and governmental authorities or court order to disclose your personal data. We may also need to disclose personal data if we determine, it is required to enforce our terms and conditions or protect our operations or users. Additionally, in the event of a reorganization, merger, or sale we may transfer any and all personal data we have collected to the relevant third party.

How we protect your Personal Data

Odyssey takes precautions, including administrative, technical, and physical measures, to safeguard your personal data against loss, theft, and misuse, as well as against unauthorized access, disclosure, alteration, and destruction. Odyssey's website may use Secure Sockets Layer (SSL) encryption on web pages where personal data is collected.

Retention Policy

We will retain your personal data for the period necessary to fulfill the purposes outlined in this Privacy Policy or for such longer retention period as required or permitted by law.

For data provided on our website, your data will be erased once it is no longer required.

Your Rights

Under certain circumstances, you have one or more of the following rights:

The right of access by the data subject

You have the right to request access to your personal data. This enables you to receive a copy of the personal data we hold about you and to check that we are lawfully processing it. You can contact us at accounting@remoteeyes.com.

The right to rectification

You have the right to request correction of your personal data that we hold about you. If you become aware that the personal data, we process is inaccurate we encourage you to contact us in writing which will enable you to have any incomplete or inaccurate information we hold about you corrected.

The right to erasure ("the right to be forgotten")

You may have the right to request erasure of your personal data. This enables you to ask us to delete or remove personal data where there is no good reason for us continuing to process it. To the extent the continued processing of your personal data is necessary, for example in order for us to comply with our legal obligations or for legal requirements to be established, enforced or defended, we are not required to delete your personal data

The right to restriction of processing

You may have the right to request the restriction of processing of your personal data to consist only of storage. This enables you to ask us to suspend the processing of personal data about you, for example if you want us to establish its accuracy or the reason for processing it.

The right to object

You have the right to object to our processing of your personal data at any time when it relates to our direct marketing efforts towards you.

Furthermore, you have the right to object to our processing of your personal data at any time, for reasons relating to your personal life, where we are relying on a legitimate interest as legal basis for processing.

The right to withdraw your consent

You have the right to withdraw a consent you have provided us with for the purpose of processing your personal data. If you wish to withdraw your consent, please contact us by using the contact information specified in the top.
